Politics and Election Studies in Terengganu Darul Iman: A Preliminary Study of Systematic Analysis Literature Review

Siti Noranizahhafizah Boyman & Nurul Fathihah Mazlan
Dept. of Social Studies & Citizenship Universiti Pendidikan Sultan Idris (UPSI) 35900 Tanjung Malim, Perak, Malaysia

https://doi.org/10.35609/gcbssproceeding.2021.1 (45)

ABSTRACT

This article is a preliminary study using systematic analysis of literature review for politics and election studies in Terengganu. Based on Table 1, the party that ruled Terengganu had changed thrice from 1959 to 2018. This started from the first general election until the 14th general election. At the beginning of 1959, Terengganu is governed by the Malaysian Islamic Party (PAS; Parti Islam Se-Malaysia). Nevertheless, the state ruling was taken over by Perikatan or BN in 1964 to 1995 and was seized by PAS in 1999. In 2004, BN managed to occupy the government seat once more, but it lasted for only 15 years compared to the years before because, in 2018, PAS managed to win the hearts of the Terengganu people to rule the state back again. The purpose of this study is to identify the number of studies and research themes in the studies on politics and election in Terengganu. Apart from that, the voting pattern in Terengganu from 1959 to 2018 is also included as the basis of knowledge about the election in Terengganu.

Keywords: Elections; Politics; Terengganu; PAS; Systematic Review