GCBSS Conference-to-Publication Workflow

Your Step-by-Step Guide to Publishing in Indexed Journals through GCBSS

Step 1: Submit Your Abstract

- Submit an extended abstract via the official portal.
- Receive the conference submission decision within approximately 10-15 working days.
- Upon acceptance, register and submit your full paper as per the schedule.
- Submit: https://gcbss.org/Registration.php

Step 2: Register & Present

- Present your accepted paper at the conference (in-person or online).
- Virtual/online presenters may participate remotely via Zoom.
- Receive feedback before or after the event.

Step 3: Attend the GCBSS Workshop (Optional but Recommended)

- Workshop Topic: How to Publish in AJG- and ABDC-Ranked, SSCI/SCI-Indexed, and Scopus-Indexed Journals.
- Gain strategies from guest editors and experienced scholars.
- Sharpen your research and publishing skills.

Step 4: Submit Full Paper for Journal Consideration

- Eligible manuscripts may be submitted to suitable GCBSS-associated or partner journals.
- Manuscripts are subject to the journal's editorial screening and peer-review process.
- Authors may be required to revise and resubmit in response to reviewer or editorial feedback.
- The final publication decision rests entirely with the journal/editor.

Step 5: Journal Production & Publication

- Following acceptance, manuscripts proceed through the journal/publisher's production process.
- Publication opportunities may include journals ranked/listed in AJG or ABDC, or indexed in Web of Science and/or Scopus, depending on the journal.
- Journal publication fees may be sponsored by GATR, subject to manuscript acceptance and applicable terms.
